

Consultedge CEO Honored With 2007 "Forty Under 40" Award

(Whippany, NJ, August 29, 2007) - Neal Stanton, President and CEO of Consultedge, Inc., a leading provider of telecommunications solutions that drive business performance and value, has been named a 2007 recipient of the Forty Under 40 award. The annual awards program honors men and women who have been making headlines in their field and who share a commitment to business growth, professional excellence, and their communities. The awards program is produced by NJBiz, New Jersey's premier business news publication and is sponsored by AXA Advisors and Wiss & Company, Certified Public Accountants.

"I am very happy to receive this recognition from New Jersey's top business news organization," said Stanton. "Beyond the honor for me personally, this award is an acknowledgement of the mission, growth and spirit of Consultedge. Every day, the Consultedge team demonstrates the professional excellence, leadership, and community support that made this achievement possible." Stanton co-founded Consultedge in 2000 with Henry Rosin and Thomas Melville.

Award recipients will be honored by NJBiz and the program sponsors at a ceremony on Monday, September 24, 2007 at the Palace at Somerset Park in Somerset, NJ. Winners will be featured in a special supplement to NJBiz on October 1, 2007.

"We are truly honored to have the opportunity to recognize these outstanding individuals," said David A. Shankweiler, CEO of Journal Publications, parent company of NJBiz. "As business and community leaders, they are constantly redefining success within the business arena. These individuals share a commitment to business growth, professional excellence and the community. They are shaping the economic future of New Jersey. On behalf of NJBiz, we would like to thank and congratulate the Forty Under 40 class of 2007."

To qualify for the award, nominees must work in New Jersey; be born after November 13, 1967; and be an owner, partner, president, CEO, CFO, COO, board chair, senior executive management or person with significant authority for decision-making in the company.
